2022 LIMA 3/5 REUNION

Our Reunion was really good. We had roughly 28 who were coming to the Reunion. Eventually 4 Veterans got back to me saying that they couldn't come. I wound up sending their shirts and hats and gave them back their Banquet money. We were going to have 24 Veterans for our Reunion. When we got to the hotel in Fredericksburg, VA there were another 2 Veterans who didn't come again, so we only had 22 Veterans. When I got home I sent them their shirts and hats and gave them back their Banquet money. That was the smallest Reunion since I started coming in 1999 at San Antonio, TX.

Tim and Becky McLaughlin, Joe McLaughlin's son and wife, did a very good Reunion for Lima 3/5. The McLaughlins were at the hotel every day. Tim took us to Quantico on Friday. We had a great time there. On Saturday we had our Banquet at the Marine Corps Museum. It was really a good Banquet. Tim and Becky helped us a lot. We had our Raffle and Silent Auction after our Lima 3/5 Meeting on Saturday morning since we couldn't do it at the Banquet.

Tony Van Reusen is going to host the Reunion in Scottsdale, AZ. Our Reunion will be at Embassy Suites by Hilton in Scottsdale, AZ located north of Old Town Scottsdale from Wednesday June 7 to June 11 2023. Each of the rooms feature a private bedroom, living room, wet bar with a sink, microwave, mini fridge, and coffeemaker. The room is $129.00 plus 14.02%. We can have free breakfast every morning. There is free parking and free internet. I'll have how to get to the hotel in the January Newsletter.

I hope we all want to get to the 2023 Reunion in Scottsdale, AZ.

Semper Fi,

Dan.
