SAN ANTONIO RECAP

Golf? Oh yea, we did some landscaping . . . moved a bunch of grass north of the clubface. The roosters and the hens pecked around for 18 holes and guess what? We had a blast! Didn't have the submarine repeat from JP, but some of us lost our balls along the way . . . More Viagra in '06! Everybody teed off with a USMC logo golf ball . . . a few got the chance to hit it again. The 19th hole was very moist, the finger pointing had arthritis and the champions were crowned at the Banquet Saturday evening. I thought "hackers" was an internet term, but we exceeded that, big time!

Dan Nordmann was again the Joe Rosenthal of our Reunion . . . the poses will totally grace Newsletter #77 in the fall of '05 when the dust of Texas settles in your mailbox . . . standby to see some old and new faces! Here's a taste . . . '05 . . .

The Skip Polos for '05 were gone ASAP! The Bob Banks LIMA 3/5 Tees were gone in a yellow flash. A dozen of the LIMA 3/5 logo trademark "Tony the Shirt's" trophies went faster than the first beer . . . This is a legend within the Company . . . a contribution without parallel . . . HUGE THANKS to the Professor . . . you are The Man!

BUSINESS MEETING

Topics were brought forth, votes taken and all is well with Lima 3/5.

Donation: for a brick at the new USMC Heritage Foundation . . . $300 . . . Inscription is . . . Lima 3/5 Vietnam . . . PASSED. We made a $1,000 contribution 2 years ago to get on the 'Wall' of contributors and our Archives will be donated for inclusion into this USMC Memorial project.

San Diego is the site for 2006 . . . Dennis Freed hosting.

Large Kudos to the ladies of Lima 3/5 . . . you are the best and we love you . . . Semper Fi.

Again, we did "Dick's Last Resort Saloon" for Ken Carman's birthday . . . I think he's somewhere in his 40's! I'm counting beers here, it could have been more, but his cell phone went dead about 1 a.m. We tore the place up with smiles and some good food on the boot. Flat out us having a great time!

The Texas Hold 'em poker scramble was furious . . . 5 players . . . everybody won the pleasure of the event and somebody walked away with a few of my nickels, which I had saved up for 365. Nobody lost but me? Next year we are bowling?

We did the Alamo . . . a part of the history that has conflicting opinions on Davey Crockett and Jim Bowie and their roles in history . . . but the bullet holes in the walls said, "they lost more than their shirts" . . . kinda spooky, knowing that we too are a part of the conflict of war . . . whatever the cause may be . . . has been and is still happening today! Doubt there will ever be a war to end all wars . . . too bad . . . 'cause war is hell, as we all know now! Peace seems like the best solution . . . but until then . . . the United States Marines rule the world of combat.

Johnnie Harris married Tess Hann on Thursday . . . some Marines attended . . . we all wish them the best.

SATURDAY EVENING BANQUET

Our annual jewel came off in high style.

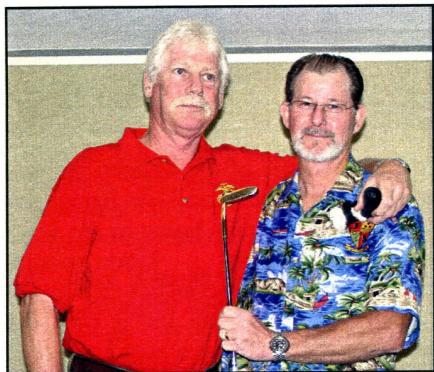

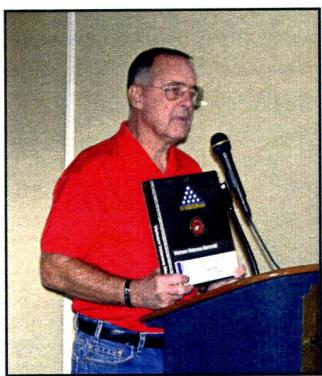

Banner boomed thru the box.

The Invocation Prayer

was delivered by Gunny Loucks . . . The acknowledgment of our Marines and Corpsmen killed in action in Vietnam was presented by Gunny Loucks and he presented our album of 'Rubbings from the Wall' . . . delivered to table of honor for those brave men.

SGTMAJ AI Ross presented the TJ Dyer secured USMC Color Guard and they were flawless. They presented the USMC flag of Lima 3/5 . . . with battle streamers hanging from the flagstaff . . . monumental, because we are. The Star Spangled

The golf tourney award presentations were handled and presented by '04 Marine Low Gross Champion JP Hunt as he delved off the booty, most notable to the King of Lima 3/5

Golf '05 . . . James "Butch" White who fired a 79 (wow) . . . Defending JP closed with an 88 . . . the rest of us . . . not so good. The USMC gold putter . . . now serving its 17th year from bag to bag will hang for a year in Louisiana. 12 shooters fired off 1233 shots, some 275 yards, others about 5 feet . . . self included more than once. The 1st tee was topped by a USMC golf ball and KP winners received a USMC golf bag towel. Nice pin shots go to Debbie White and Ken Carman . . . the High Gross shooters received a USMC glove (hope it helps down the road) went to Dan and Mary Ann Nordmann scored the logo balls. The 19th hole was liquid as usual and the boys and girls celebrated our unique venue with the obvious vow that "I will kick your butt next year." . . . ya gotta love the spunk . . .

The Texas BBQ dinner buffet was gobbled up by all and the Raffle numbers were called as the Silent Auction bidding went on 'til 2100 hours when the bid sheets were collected and the treasures presented. A squad handled the duty . . . taking care of business on a Saturday evening. Items donated for the Silent Auction came from many . . . great job Marines . . . you are the best!

The '04 JoeMac Raffle winners Ken and Sherri Carman presided over ticket sales this year. Joe and Judi Mac couldn't make it in '05. Sales of the $10 tickets were brisk again. Who wouldn't take a $10 chance at the opportunity to win 2 round trip airline tickets, 4 nights' stay at the hotel and 2 banquet dinners? Value is $1,500! I know I pumped in my share and was happy when the other butthead won . . . bless his heart. The winning ticket was called by Ken Carman and it was Dan "Melon" Cantrell. He promptly donated his winning share to the General Fund . . . priceless! This annual tradition has brought at least 2 smiles of the pearly whites . . . and there was no hanging chad on this puppy.

After a busy evening . . . we retired back to the Hospitality Room for reflections and remembrances . . . priceless!

The hugs and handshakes on Sunday were precious for all . . . "see ya next year my friend."
