Were you there in 2001?
It was the LARGEST EVER REUNION . . .
76 Marines, 4 Navy Corpsmen . . .

Expect the same this go-around . . .
flat out awesome digs and gig . . .
old salts and fresh faces will combine.

THIS IS THE WEST COAST SWING . . .
so if you're close by, or even not, BE THERE! It will be a dandy!

Dennis Freed, the Master of 2001 same site . . . is again at the helm.

Obtain Military Records Online

The National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) is working to make it easier for veterans with computers and Internet access to obtain copies of documents from their military files. This may be particularly helpful when a veteran needs a copy of his or her DD-214 (Report of Separation) for employment purposes.

The next of kin of deceased former military personnel may also utilize the online application system. If you are not the veteran or next of kin, you must complete the Standard Form 180 (SF 180), "Request Pertaining to Military Records," which is downloadable from the site.

To access military records online, go to www.vetreco.archives.gov (the Military Records Web Site).
